PANTHERIAN '67 SAEGERTOWN AREA JR.-SR. HIGH SCHOOL

As each of you grow to meet life's challenges, you will pause and recall the years spent at Saegertown High. Little things once so small may become your fondest memories. This Pantherian has tried to capture the highlights of 1966-1967, for it's value, too, will increase with time. And to the seniors, to whom the mementoes in these pages mean most, the Yearbook Staff wishes the very best in all that life can offer.

Sincerely,

Nancy Peterson

SOME ENCHANTED EVENING

Junior Senior Prom 1966

King Jim Swinkola and Queen Alice Getty

Surrounded by rose arbors, wishing well, candlelight, and soft music, the 1966 prom was properly called 'Some Enchanted Evening.'

Alice Getty and Jim Swinkola were chosen as king and queen. Together they reigned over the pretty pastels of spring. Everything was perfect, even the weather. Yes, the pleasant night of May 21, was a night for everyone to remember at the Junior - Senior Prom.

Although the 1966 Panthers didn't capture the league championship, our boys showed good sportsmanship and team spirit. The experienced seniors, backed by many juniors and sophomores, worked well together. However, none of this would have been possible without the excellent coaching job of Merle Darcangelo and James Bedford.

Thanks fellas, keep up the good work.

A warm Indian summer evening and a full moon set the scene for the 1966 Homecoming.

An anxious student body waited for the queen to be announced. At halftime in the Saegertown - Cambridge Springs game, the five contestants appeared on the football field. They were Judy Haemer, Suann McFadden, Darla Perry, Eldra Rohleder, and Chris Smith.

Finally, Dennis McCartney crowned the Queen - Darla Perry. John Holcomb presented her with a dozen long stemmed red roses.

Following the game, a dance was held in Queen Darla's honor. A large crowd came to see her and to enjoy the festivities, ending a wonderful Homecoming.

Majorettes—R. Braymer, L. Brooks, M. Huff, C. Froelicher, K. Groves, V. Szmyd

As usual, our marching band this year was among the most active in our area. Some of this year's highlights were parades in Olean, New York, Kennywood-Park, Pittsburgh, North East, Pa., and Meadville, Pa. on Ray Day for Governor-elect Shaffer. It is predicted that because of many new members, within the next couple years, our band will reach even greater heights.

During the 1966-67 concert season, our band was well-represented at District Band with six members attending. Last year Saegertown won the "Battle of the Bands" which was held at Allegheny Field House. The band is always receiving a new and sometimes harder type of music. This characterizes that the band is maturing into a very productive organization. Due to the small loss of seniors, the band was left with numerous experienced members.

Under the direction of Mr. Charles Cavett, Saegertown's Concert Band has a very promising future. It has two more concerts planned before the season ends.

SENIOR CHORUS

The Senior and Junior High School choruses are two of the largest organizations at Saegertown. Under the direction of Mrs. Katherine Gilmore, the choruses give annual Christmas and Spring concerts. After many dedicated practice hours, the choruses always credit our school with a fine performance.

JUNIOR CHORUS

CHORUS CLUB

The Senior Chorus Club is a relatively new organization at Saegertown. Its members strive to stimulate interest in the activities of the chorus. One of their major goals is to purchase choir robes for the chorus members.

Now what?

Now that you have graduated you must answer the inevitable question—"now what?" For all of you it means the continuation of studies in one way or another, because learning must and will continue throughout your lives.

In the years to come you may have no more report cards or examinations, but everything you do will be judged realistically. Your preparation for every goal will be carefully watched and evaluated.

Your courses have given you the tools for thought and judgment. They will serve you well, whatever the future has in store for you.

Here at American Viscose we owe much of our progress to new ideas, new improved methods and fresh approaches brought to us by young people like yourselves who never learned to stop learning.

STANTON-RAND STUDIO

As advisor to the 1967 Pantherian, I wish to express my personal thanks to the patrons and advertisers listed in this book. Your patronage is sincerely appreciated.

Many of the pictures taken this year were by Steve Baldwin, our staff photographer. Through his efforts and the efforts of Nancy Peterson, editor, and the rest of the staff, this book was made possible.

Also, in this edition of the Pantherian, Nancy and her staff introduced on the cover of this book the first die-cut school seal, which will be used subsequently on the school flag and other editions of the yearbook.
